

A NOTE FROM OUR CONCERT FESTIVAL HOSTS FROM THE WOODSTOCK ACADEMY

January 18, 2023

Dear NEMFA Membership-

We are honored to be hosting this year's NEMFA festival once again at The Woodstock Academy. We are working hard to make sure that this festival runs smoothly for everyone, and a positive musical experience is had by all.

This year, the students will be housed at the Southbridge Hotel and Conference Center located in Southbridge, MA, 10 miles north of The Woodstock Academy. This will also be the host hotel for directors. Once we have the final numbers after January 20th deadline, we will know exactly how many rooms we will need for the students. At that time, we will tell the Southbridge Conference Center to open to receive reservations from directors. Thank you for your patience in this matter.

We will also be looking for some directors to act as overnight chaperones while in the hotel. Your room will be covered by the festival. If interested, please email Ray Churchill at rchurchill@griswoldpublicschools.org or Amanda Richmond at arichmond@griswoldpublicschools.org.

Festival will be held at The Loos Center for the Performing Arts, 150 Route 169, Woodstock, CT 06281

Thank you so much and we look forward to seeing you in a few months!

Amy Ranta and Lauren Churchill
